

HOG WILD DAYS PARADE

Lions Club of Hiawatha

NO ENTRY FEE

Parade Date and Start Time:	Saturday, June 18 th 2011 at 10:30am
Staging Time:	9:00am – 10:00am
Staging Location:	Robins Road just north of Center Point Road intersection in Hiawatha. On the back lots of Cedar Graphics and Rockwell Collins.
Parade Rules:	All entries are subject to approval by the Parade committee. Parade participants may throw candy.
Rain Date and Parade Start Time:	Sunday, June 19 th at 1:00pm
Parade Route:	Parade starts on Robins Road crosses Center Point Road down Emmons passed the Hiawatha Elementary School turn left at Hiawatha Fire Station turn right on Rainbow turn right on 12 th Ave turn right on Lynhurst which takes you Right Into Guthridge City Park the location of HOG WILD DAYS.
Questions:	Call 393-3668

- The Lions Club of Hiawatha would like you to participate in their family oriented parade.
- Our parade is filmed in front of Hiawatha School by Mediacom, and can be viewed on a Mediacom channel.
- The parade is about 40 minutes.
- NO need to preregister just show up Saturday morning.
- If you have horses in the parade arrangements can be made for a police escort back to your trailers.
- Plan to attend the After Parade Party at HOG WILD DAYS right after the parade for FREE popcorn, frozen treats, face painting, tattoos, balloons, and music performed by Quarter Life Crises.